NI, Bao Hua a/k/a NI, PAU Hua A77 047 590 Attachment to I-589, CI, 3, 4,5 and 6.

I, MI, Bao Hua, a citizen of the People's Republic of China ("PRC") was born on April 4, 1965 in Fujian, PRC. I fled China because I was persecuted by the family planning policy and came to the United States on September 8, 1999.

My husband, XIAO, Mei Hao, and I were married according to a Chinese tradition in December of 1985 and registered for our marriage April 26, 1990. Our first child, XIAO, Jun Qing, was born on October 15, 1986. At that time, the Family Planning Policy in China requires a woman to wait for four years before having her second children. After a woman gave birth to two children, she has to be sterilized. The family planning officials required that I must have IUD implanted in me in end of October of 1986. I refused. In January of 1987, about five or six officials came to drag me to a hospital to have an IUD implanted in me.

My husband and I were fond of children. In March of 1987, my husband and I hired a private doctor to remove the IUD that was implanted in me. In September of 1987, I discovered that I was pregnant again and my husband and I were so happy. After I was four month pregnant, I hid in my sunt's house in Fuzhou City. On June 18, 1988, our second child was born in my sunt's house. I returned home in July of 1988 because it was inconvenient to stay in relative's home for a long time. About two cadres and six family planning officers surrounded my home and dragged me to a hospital have force sterilization on October 7, 1988. The officials also destroyed our cabinets and tables in our house. We also had to pay the fine of 200 RMB.

I felt that the life is meaningless because my husband and I did not have freedom to have more children. We had attempted to find a way to escape China to seek a new life. My husband escaped from china and arrives in the United State in January of 1990. I wanted to leave China for a long time. However, I did not have adequate funds and opportunity to leave China. I finally found a way, escaped China and arrived in the United States on September 8, 1999. My husband and I want to go to the United States because the United States is a country, which has freedom, democracy and human rights.

M, Pau Hua a/k/a M, Bao Hua A#77047 590 Attachment to Form I-589, Part C7.

In transit from China to U.S.A., I stayed in Vietnam for about ten days, then in many unknown countries in South East Asia for about half year. Then I stayed in Italy for 3 days and finally atrived in U.S.A. on September 8, 1999. I have no immigrant status in Vietnam and Italy and I did not apply for asylum in those countries because my destination was the U.S.A. I want to apply asylum in the U.S.A. because I believe that United States is the country of freedom, democracy and protects human rights.
